Swedfund's Theory of Change

Challange

Output

To achieve measurable results…

- Growing number of decent jobs
- Improved access to essential products and services
- Improved equality in workplaces
- Reduced environmental footprint
- Increased local income generation incl. Local processing
- Growth of sustainable companies with good governance
- Increased capital mobilization
- Sustainable and bankable projects

Activity

… in sustainable businesses/projects in developing countries

- Active ownership within our three pillars impact on society, sustainability and financial viability (within Swedfund's strategy*)

Outcome

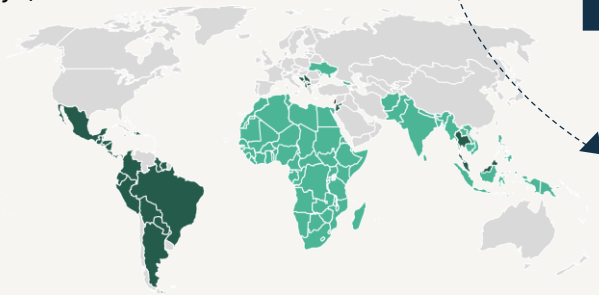
… to enable development effects

- Sustainable private sector development and growth
- More resilient and prosperous local communities
- Inclusive development and economic growth
- Accelerated climate change mitigation, adaptation and resilience

Input

Swedfund contributes with…

- Capital (incl. mobilized capital)
- Competence and knowledge
- Project Accelerator funding
- Technical Assistance funding
- Partnerships



Impact

… supporting Poverty reduction

- Contribute to Agenda 2030

Spec. geography, sectors and instruments*

Direct effects

Indirect effects